To Give is to Get...

The Telluride Film Festival is a combined effort of all, including the brilliant creations of the participating filmmakers, the devoted work of 600+ staff, and the financial support of generous passholders, donors, corporations and foundations. And without the latter we would not be able to be "the rarest jewel in the crown of the festival-going experience." (Todd McCarthy, The Variety Guide to Film Festivals)

This support means a lot—it helps build six of our eight theatres, cater food events for thousands of passholders at a time, and bring the best and the brightest talent in cinema to one of the most exclusive and remote mountain towns in the country. The Festival provides unique and indeed life-changing experiences for many passholders and students. We are committed to continuing this mission and to always giving you the best movie-going experience. And we need your help.

There are many ways to support the Festival. You may consider becoming a General Support Donor, or sponsor any of our film or education programs, or contribute to the Endowment Fund. Your contribution can be tax-deductible in its entirety, or you can receive benefits such as Sponsor passes.
