37th TELLURIDE FILM FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES “LAST CALL” FOR 2010 FILM SUBMISSIONS

June 18, 2010

BERKELEY, CA – Telluride Film Festival (September 3-6, 2010), presented by National Film Preserve, Ltd. has issued a “Last Call” for its 2010 film submissions.

SHORTS AND STUDENT FILMS DEADLINE: JULY 1, 2010
FEATURES DEADLINE: JULY 15, 2010

Telluride Film Festival, a four-day international event celebrating the art of film, plays host to a selection of feature length and short films. Considered one of the world’s leading showcases for foreign and domestic films, many films first launched at the Telluride festival have gone on to award-winning recognition including BLUE VELVET, SLING BLADE, CROUCHING TIGER, HIDDEN DRAGON, BROKEBACK MOUNTAIN, BABEL, THE LIVES OF OTHERS, JUNO, THE LAST STATION and SLUMDOG MILLIONAIRE. First-time filmmakers discovered at TFF include Terry Zwigoff, Billy Bob Thornton, Richard Rodriguez, Doug Liman, Jon Favreau, Lodge Kerrigan, Joshua Marston, and Robert Luketic. Films selected to screen at Telluride Film Festival are shown out-of-competition and kept secret until Opening Day.

About Telluride Film Festival

The prestigious Telluride Film Festival ranks among the world’s best film festivals and is an annual gathering of cinema enthusiasts, filmmakers, critics and industry insiders. It is considered a major launching ground for the fall season’s most talked-about films. Co-founded in 1974 by Tom Luddy, James Card and Bill and Stella Pence, Telluride Film Festival, nestled in the beautiful mountain town of Telluride, Colorado, is a four-day international educational event celebrating the art of film. The Festival’s long-standing commitment is to join filmmakers and film connoisseurs together to experience great cinema. The exciting schedule, kept secret until Opening Day, consists of film debuts with filmmakers presenting their works, special Guest Director programs, three major Tributes to guest artists and remarkable treasures from the past. Festival headquarters are in Berkeley, California.
